Editors Are Greatly Impressed By Toronto

The Following Article Has Been Sent To Us By Mr. John MacKenzie, Editor Who Attended the C. W. N. A. Convention In Toronto.

Torontonians (if that is the right name) are proud of their city. And they have good reason. Toronto is the second largest city in Canada, and it is growing fast. Toronto has some times been referred to as "the good." The appellation may have been tacked on by outsiders, (there does seem to be considerable jealousy of the Ontario capital on the part of some other cities in the province) but the inhabitants seem to do their best to justify it. The moral atmosphere is clean and wholesome. Vice does not flaunt itself in its streets to the extent it does in some other cities, even in the West. There are many amusements in the public, to be found mainly on the shores and on the islands of Lake Ontario, and they are clean and wholesome. Pianos (or gramophones) might object to promiscuous dancing in the pavilions maintained at these amusement resorts, but they are well regulated and the result is an abundance of healthy enjoyment and entertainment for the natives of Toronto, and for the stranger visiting its gates. Toronto is a patriotic city. Its citizens point with pride to an elite

In their last tangle Carleton was the victor in a hard-fought game, so the local boys are planning on turning the tables this time, and allow the boys of the south to take second place.

On the same evening a dance will be held in the Memorial Hall under the auspices of the baseball club, with a five-piece orchestra in attendance. All dancers are urged to attend this event, and so help the club.

Ardenode Notes

The heavy rain which fell throughout this district Wednesday morning, June 13, prevented a number of ladies from attending the U.F.W.A. meeting at the home of Mrs. Chas. Dawson. The session was largely occupied with discussing the work accomplished by the U.F.W.A. and proved to be quite

A number of interesting addresses and reports were given, and much information was derived from the deliberations of the convention.

The report of the Alberta Press Association was presented by the provincial president, Mr. John MacKenzie, who was also appointed a member of the nominations committee. The Alberta directors for the coming year are Messrs J. A. Carwell, of Red Deer, and L. D. Nesbitt, Bassano.

Across Canada In Trans-Canada

Spending about the 3,000 odd miles of steel that span Canada, and reaching the Atlantic coast within ninety hours of leaving the Pacific, it seems hard to realize that only forty years ago, a journey across Canada was a matter of months, and at that there was never any certainty of a successful termination. Nowadays it is easier to travel from Vancouver to New York than to stay at home.

Namaka Notes

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wheeler left on Thursday last on a motor trip through the Yellow Stone Park.

The U.F.W.A. will meet on Saturday night, at Mrs. H. Colpitts.

Miss Netta Watson returned home last week from Calgary.

The rains of the past week has certainly put a different look on both the fields and the farmers' faces.

A car load of hogs was shipped from this point on Thursday last.

A WARNING TO MOTORISTS

A warning has been issued that motorists will be prosecuted if found running their cars without mufflers, within the town limits. Soldiers' war" at the University of Toronto, and the unveiling of the section in which is contained the list giving the names of graduates of the University who died in the cause of freedom.

There were no speeches. A fine military band, and over a thousand troops, most of them war veterans, participated, and the service appropriately consisted of hymns, prayers, the unveiling, general salute, the Last Post, the Dead March, Reveille, concluding with the national anthem.

But what stirred the imagination most was the demonstration of dignity given by the staff of the university, in their robes, passing along the walls of the great institution of learning, and in front of the ranks of khaki-clad troops to pay their tribute to the dead. The spirit of the Anglo-Saxon race, the demonstration of what our country and our Empire stands for, was contained in the picture presented at this ceremony.

Britons do not fight for the sake of fighting, but in the consciousness of right, and the combination of religion, learning, remembrance, and power, will so long as each is kept in its right proportions ensure good government for our Empire, the liberty of those who look to us for help when unjustly attacked, and the progress, spiritual as well as material, of the world as a whole.

The ceremony excited sad memories among those who have suffered the loss of kinsmen during the war, but it is well to evoke these memories, even if the recollection is painful, for it should encourage our determination to see that the ideals for which so much blood was spilled are perpetuated.

Toronto is a great city, not only great materially but in its citizens. They are proud to be citizens of Toronto, of Canada, and of the British Empire. Like the rest of us, they have their faults, but loyalty and service to the place of your birth and adoption is a virtue that stands for much, and

Wired Report of Prairie Provinces

All crops throughout the prairie provinces are looking well, and indicate uniform and regular germination of seed is the summary of the weekly crop report issued by the Agricultural Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The weather has been somewhat cooler than is generally expected at this time of year, but rains have been general and liberal; Alberta being especially fortunate. There is very little demand for farm help as seeding is completed, and farmers are endeavoring to do without help until harvest. Cattle receipts at stock yards continue heavy for this time of year the supply being considerably heavier than the demand. Indications in Manitoba point to a good hay crop. Wheat is looking decidedly good. Fall rye is coming into head and promises a heavy yield. There is quite a noticeable revival on the production of hogs, particularly of the bacon type in this province. Growth in Saskatchewan has been rapid the past week and weather has been favorable and liberal supply of moisture. Rain having fallen heavy in the North east and central portion of the province. Although the present crop conditions is behind the average year soil conditions are such that it is hard to predict what a few weeks of good weather will do. Livestock is improving on pasture and there is a large increase of lambs and pigs over last year. In Alberta the situation is considered promising and everything seems to indicate a really good crop. There is a fairly good amount of moisture in the ground, with wheat from ten to twelve inches. Grass in some sections of the south is somewhat scanty, necessitating the feeding of milch cows lack of grass has also affected the sheep ranches but an improvement in pasture is already evident as result of recent rains. On the E. D. and B. C. lines conditions continue satisfactory the growing wheat being well ahead of last year. Livestock is thriving and shipments of both hogs and cattle are up to the average. Local showings have fallen but further precipitation would be welcome.

On Parliament Hill

Sir Henry Drayton's much admired utterance. It was, in fact, almost turned out to be a very brief and very the National Railway asked of parliament and reached itself into a demand, by way of an amendment, for the creation of a new select standing committee of parliament, to which would be referred all National Railway estimates and in which would be vented the power to summon and hear witnesses, review expenditures and generally supervise Railway financing. Probably, to Sir Henry's surprise, the government has shown itself willing to accept what was beyond doubt, a constructive proposal. It has virtually accepted Sir Henry's idea and has moved in the House for the creation of a standing committee which will be practically upon the Drayton plan.

This is an important concession for a government to make and simply goes to show that the Prime Minister and his colleagues put business-like, prompt and fearless administration of the National Railways ahead of political prestige and partisan advantage. The new committee will deal especially with "closed business," which means that there will not be dragged into premature publicity matters of feeling operation of the system, or anything of which, even in the unfavourable light, might possibly affect the welfare of the railroads and prematurely disclose plans to rival railway systems.

THE SENATE BACKS DOWN
When the Senate decided on this or four days in succession, that it was less apt to place every obstacle in the path of Sir Henry Thomson, the press of Canada rose in revolt, one or two newspapers gave the issue, others followed, and public opinion was stirred to an extent which impressed even the disciples of reaction in the Upper Chamber. The House of Commons joined in the demand for a "hand-off" of the National Railways' policy and members of the Commons stated in very blunt and unequivocal terms their opinion of all and sundry who were blocking the wheels of progress. Full of bravado, the Senate staged an impressive and formal protest against this disregard of its ancient dignity—and then promptly set its face in the opposite direction and started to read the wrongs already done. The sitting of its Railways Committee on the morning following its pro forma defence of its liberties was a rare treat for those who had seen similar attacks in the previous week. Every consideration was shown to the Counsel and engineering experts of the National roads and several bills were passed without demur. The Senate has acted wisely in changing, ostensibly at least, its attitude regarding the headline bills and those politicians who put public ownership principles above partisan considerations are hoping that the Senate will convert to its former mistaken policy of criticism and obstruction.

DIED ON DUTY

With tragic suddenness occurred last Wednesday the death of one of the best liked members of the House of Commons, J. A. McKelvie, Conservative member for Yale, (Cariboo). Mr. McKelvie has been a member only since 1921, but in that time he has become known as one in whom fidelity to principles and devotion to duty were wedded to the most amiable traits of personality. He spoke seldom, but when he spoke it was with the tenderness and precision of the man who is accustomed to the pen. Mr. McKelvie was a newspaperman of long experience and his opinions held the respect of men of all shades of political opinion. He was in his seat in the Commons an hour or two before his death, though not at all in good health, and it will be a matter of sorrowful pride to his friends and constituents that he answered the call while at the post of duty.

CHURCH UNION COMPROMISE SOUGHT

"Church Union"—no one ever dreams of speaking of it as a bill—it is still in committee and may stay there until the sessions of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Owen Sound are concluded. A bitter fight in the Commons seems unavoidable should there emerge from the committee a minority as well as a majority report, and for that reason no effort is being lost at present to effect some compromise, the measure must soon pass into the deliberative chamber.

And whether or not the Brown motion of last Wednesday, providing for rescinding of the amendment already carried, which provided for a two year delay and carrying of the matter into the courts, will be accepted for debate remains to be seen. The committee will resume on Wednesday next, and this new resolution may be discussed only in the event of a majority decision to that effect by the committee. It has been accepted by Chairman McTavish not as a "notice of motion" and not as a substantive motion. Meanwhile, no doubt, the value of this Presbyterian general assembly will be heard and members of Parliament will have another voice to guide them toward the solution which still remains a very vexed question.

GOVERNMENT INSPECTION OF BANKS

The Commons—and no less the country—is awaking with a good deal of interest to the appearance of a report in detail of Hon. James Robb's proposed amendment of the Bank Act providing for government inspection of chartered banks. It is to the credit of the Acting Minister of Finance, that he has made up his mind regardless of the plan, placed before him by his constituents, to accord to the people of the Dominion such legislation as will inspire in them more confidence in the security of banking institutions than had been warranted before.

The broad outlines of policy already placed before the banking committee (the Minister indicates with sufficient definiteness "that the proposed 'Inspector General' for Canadian banks will have very real and very wide powers; also, that his confidential reports to the Department will be used as the basis of ministerial action in such instances as call for action. The real power will remain with the minister; that power will be exercised on the advice of the inspector.

Hon. Ernest Lapointe has been in Washington, acting as Canada's plenipotentiary in respect of the completion of the "run-running treaty" between Canada and the United States. The terms of this pact will appear within the course of a day or two and probably will furnish a text for a full-dress debate in the House. Mr. Lapointe was delegated last year to sign for Canada, and on behalf of the King, the much discussed Halibut Fisheries Treaty and his presence again at the U. S. Capital indicates that he has proved a capable and acceptable ambassador at the Court of Uncle Sam.

Classical Concert Entertainment at Tudor Successful

A treat was enjoyed by Strathmore's audience on Monday evening last when the Ladies Aid of the Sacred Heart church presented, what might be broadly termed "a classical concert". None but purists, in these days, deny this classification in the work of Beethoven, Chopin and Brahms.

Father Boltz, of Rockyford, under whose supervision the programme was arranged, is to be greatly thanked for the effort involved in putting together such a programme.

The pleasure derived by the audience from listening to Father Boltz' own performance at the piano was, in itself, a compliment to both performer and audience.

The Moonlight Sonata (Beethoven) always interesting, suffered, perhaps for lack of more dominant instrument. Father Boltz' own variation on a D flat theme evidenced his ability as a composer.

Of the numbers given by this performer the writer enjoyed Brahms' Polish Rhapsody in G minor, given with an appreciation of tonal color and perfection of rhythm. "To a Wild Rose" (McLewell) showed delicacy of feeling, very gratifying after the view and breadth of the preceding numbers.

Father Boltz' playing shows virility, breadth, and a most desirable deference to the culture of rhythm, which latter is all too frequently sacrificed to sentimentality.

Mrs. Odella Meyers rendered delightfully several numbers on the violin: Valse de Concert and Mazurka, by Musin, showing equipment and true musicianship. Mrs. Meyer's pleasing stage presence gave an added charm to her performance.

Miss Nellie Joffard accompanied Mrs. Meyers admirably, and in addition played first piano in a duet with Father Boltz. List's Hungarian Rhapsody No. 6. Miss Spillard has a pleasing touch.

Mr. G. H. Patrick, baritone, of Strathmore, rendered four numbers and encore, in his usual pleasing manner; of these "Simon the Cellar Rat" was given with a notable degree of finish, though a cold in the throat prevented Mr. Patrick's giving his songs with his usual vigor. Mrs. Rowland, also of Strathmore, accompanied Mr. Patrick acceptably, with her usual skill and refinement.

Mrs. Myers, Miss Spillard and Father Boltz' hall, at present, from Rockyford, and let it be said that Strathmore evinced on Monday evening, her appreciation of Rockyford's road fortune, by filling the Memorial Hall with a large and appreciative audience.

After the concert the artists were entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. Van Tiesem, of the Tudor Bank, Strathmore. Strathmore unites in a plea for another such treat.

On the evening of June 7th, the U.E.W.A. of Tudor submitted a programme that easily surpassed all their previous efforts.

A number of well-known Calgary artists were present for the occasion, and along with the local talent, presented a varied and delightful entertainment.

The opening number was a piano solo by Mr. James Best. On the audience demanding more Jimmie returned and treated the crowd to another old time favourite.

Maxine Dyson was net in line with a song. This little lot of four years faved the audience like a prima donna and accompanied by her mother, sang "Tal O Mine". Her sweet voice and pleasing personality delighted every one, and in response to repeated demand for an encore, she returned with that favourite of other years, "School Days".

Miss George Day, of Calgary, appeared a number of times during the evening. Miss Day, who has been heard by many people over the radio, possesses a voice of rare charm. In "Angus McDonald" and "My Ain Wee Home", she was heard at her best, and the people of the district will always be glad of the opportunity of listening to this splendid artist.

Miss Elmer Brown, a gifted young elocutionist, brought a gift of laughter from the crowd with her story of a female.

On being recalled, she told in her own original way, the tale of a baby that was not wanted.

Miss Doris, of Calgary, was a prime favourite with every one.

His opening number was that glorious song by Egan, "There is a land" On returning he convulsed the audience with a song about the "Batchelor Owl" and wound up by having his listeners join in the refrain of the "Pump, Pump, Pump".

Miss Drucilla Brown, and Mr. Jas. Best played a delightful duet on the piano, and to satisfy the audience they had to come back for a second turn.

Mr. George Day, an old favourite with the Tudorites appeared in the garb of "Old Gaul", and with his lauder songs and stunts showed that a good Scotch comedian can always claim generous support.

Mrs. E. G. Padden, of Calgary, a pianist of rare ability, acted as accompanist for the Calgary artists, and also played a number of solos which were greatly enjoyed.

The concluding number on the programme was the appearance of the Rockyford quartet. In the "Little Old Brown Church", and Bring Back My Bonnie To Me" the turned out to be a most efficient number.

On the motion of Mr. O. Dyson, a cordial vote of thanks was given to all the artists that had made the evening so pleasant for the audience.

Tudor "Chaser"

There was a full class in attendance at the banquet of the Young Peoples' Union held at the Tudor Hotel, last night. The banquet young ladies and young men were more than jubilant from the time they got to the spacious house of Mr. F. Schaefer. There were two tables well filled to the delicious menu provided by the Red division. At the close of the dinner Mr. Fred Schaefer, acting as Master of Ceremonies, very ably conducted the toast, making it so a noted young lady in his company was after the minister. She was advised not to be by the minister's wife. But at the close of Miss Day's toast she chose a very apt lyricist. All the young people responded to Fred's demands, as M.C., with a gracefulness and ease, depicting the spirit of the toast. To the surprise of Mr. Schaefer, he was presented with an antique brass candle lamp for his new home. This was given as appreciation of his efforts as well as the complete class of friends.

At the close of the toast the remainder of the evening was spent in social time, and plenty of music; each doing what they could to help make the time pass most pleasantly.

The closing piece was: "For He's a jolly good fellow". The last one on got into the ring was the "Social Fast Every Night" best known to the banqueters.

Mrs. Hadden and Mr. Burrell, who were entertained at the home of Mr. Burrell's cousin, Jas. Burrell, came near missing their train on Sunday. Why? Ask Mac.

The Council agreed that Mr. Gross point was well taken, and it was then agreed between the Council and Mr. Gross that $50.00 per acre be paid for all lands expropriated for road purposes.

It was moved and carried that $125.00

NEW PROPOSAL FOR COAL FOR ONTARIO

A new proposal for the supply of Alberta coal to Ontario points has been made by Premier Greenfield to the Dominion Government. The Premier suggests that 100,000 tons be shipped at a freight rate of $5.50 a ton, the shipments to be made during the summer months, and the Dominion Government to absorb what loss might occur to the railway on operating expenses over and above the freight rate stated. Premier Greenfield has embodied the proposal in a letter to Premier King.

By Law No. 16 relating to a road division in Sec. 29 and 30-24-24 was read for the 3rd time and on motion it was passed as read.

Mr. Pratt mentioned a new scheme which will be a boon to the immigrant using Canadian National trains, namely the installation of lunch counters on the colonist cars at which travellers may obtain meals at rock bottom prices.

WOMAN PROSPECTOR FILES HER CLAIMS

Women have made a success of homesteading in the west, but the story is not unknown, but Mrs. C. H. Miles, wife of a Toronto mining engineer, claims to be the first Canadian woman prospector. Mrs. Miles, after a two months' prospecting trip in the Sturgeon Lake district, Northern Ontario, has filed several claims which, she says, promise to bring her in a good return. She was accompanied on most of her trips, but makes little of the hardships.

1,618 NEW SETTLERS IN MAY

During the month of May the Canadian National Railways brought 1,618 new settlers to Western Canada. This number included 587 British, 138 Czech-Slovaks, 100 Germans, 417 Scandinavians, 76 Hungarians, 63 Jews-Slavs, 29 Ukrainians, 52 Dutch, 34 Romanians. Other nationalities included in carrying numbers were: Irish, French, Austrian, Polish, Russian, Jews and Poles.

Rockyford Locals

Everybody wears a smile now.

Crop conditions are of the best. Jupiter Pluvius having favored us.

Nurse Elliott arrived home from spending a week in Calgary.

The rain has certainly put a stop to athletic sports for the week-end, but we don't mind for this time.

The rain has certainly put a stop to given by the pupils of Rev. Father Boltz on Thursday evening next. This musical treat is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest. Dances and two piano work are being made the features of the programme.

The new beer room proved to be a very popular place last Saturday.

Mr. J. P. Buckler, of Ansonia, Conn., is a visitor at the home of the Constocks. He expects to return home by way of Victoria, California, and Colorado.

In spite of the rain which made driving bad on Sunday last there was a splendid attendance at the service held in Rosebud Church. Mr. Walker is endeavoring to get together enough singers to form a choir for the summer. It is to be hoped that the people in the community will give him all the assistance they can, as there is no doubt about the music being appreciated.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Spence is quite ill in the Calgary hospital. Miss Copp is taking charge of his classes in the school here and Miss Georgia Kempt is teaching the junior classes.

Mr. Brunner reports that he has seen six muskrats on his place since the rains have come.

Mr. L. O. Hart, who is farming five miles east of Rosebud, is taking a trip through the Central States to Florida, with his wife. Mr. Hart is making the entire trip by motor, and expects to have a wonderful journey. He will return via Los Angeles about the middle of September.

Baintree Sidelights

Yes, we are back for more. This time we got a bull dog called Dempsey. No we don't own him—just borrowed him for a couple of weeks to eat up the goat remains. Say, boy, he's a dandy—took first prize at the show for eating rabbits. He's got one very bad habit that we don't like. Maybe you can tell us how to cure him? Every time Dempsey sees Matt, the cat, he's got to test the son of a gun up a telephone pole. The first day he was around a little boy pulled his tail. Dempsey retaliated by nibbling Johnny's fingers. The little boy's dad got sore and threatened to shoot the bull. Well as one of our friends would say, he wasn't quick enough. Dempsey applied his double shift, and the war was over. In token of victory the pup presented us with the right leg of his opponent's overalls. Call it fate or kismet if you like, but it was just the right size to repair the knees of our kid. Yes, old son, it pays to be Scotch.

Say, Charlie, old chum, don't nudge us too much in public. We know how much you love us, but if our good lady hears about it, she'll nail three times a day will be our punishment.

Mrs. Gunn, president of the U.F.W.A. was the guest of Mrs. F. E. Wyman during the last week end. In honour of Mrs. Gunn the U.F.W.A. and U.F.A. held a reception in the school house on Friday night. A pleasant evening was spent in social activities. The chief executive of the U.F.W.A. created a favourable impression on all present by her ability and personality. Mrs. Wyman, to support her, the ladies organization will undoubtedly continue to flourish and expand.

Some time ago we ran across a line of the line, and which is noted for magazine published on the other side its anti-British behavior. In the editorial portion we found the owner at his oldest sport of twisting the lions tail. On looking over the rest of the paper, we noticed with amazement that three of the most important stories or articles were by British writers. Such is the inconsistency

Recital At Rosebud

On Monday evening, June 2nd, in the Rosebud Hall, an exceptionally fine musical programme was presented by the Rev. Father Boltz at its piano, Mrs. Odella Meyers with the violin and St. Rita's mixed choir. Five various numbers chosen by Father Boltz for the recital displayed to the full his splendid technique, and his admirable sympathetic touch. The latter items of his programme were the best. Brahms' "Rhapsody in G minor" and Schumann's "Souring" were full of fire and spirit, while McDowell's "To a Wild Rose" was a little gem of delicate expression.

The St. Rita's choir is a well commended for its good work. Mr. Walrod has a well balanced choir, and he is to be congratulated on the spirited attack and fine finish that the choir played, particularly in Weigert's "Gloria Be To God."

Miss Spillard is improving; her technique is good, but she needs to study the difficult and delicate art of accompanying. Her playing showed to best advantage in Hungarian Rhapsody (air for piano) which closed the programme. It was a strong and brilliant final.

The Ladies Altar Society wish to tender to Father Boltz a vote of thanks for his recital, in appreciation of the time and energy that he devoted to it.

of the human race in general, and of Win. Randolph Hearst in particular. Mr. Hearst can slander the Indians all he wants to, but he cannot blot out the glorious history of his own country. Every president of the great republic except one, owes their being to English, Scotch, Irish and Welsh descent. Nearly all of her great statesmen, soldiers, and writers had the same blood in their veins. Because Mr. Hearst is of Hebrew descent, we are in honour bound to say a little more. From the land of the Union Jack has come more than to the Jewish people than from all the rest of the world put together. Deny it if you can.

Listen guys! Don't have anything to do with chickens. It doesn't make any difference whether they wear buttons or silk stockings. They always give a fellow a lot of trouble. Here is our experience—profit by it if you will. A couple of months ago the hens gave us orders to read a scolding hen. When we reached down to take her from the coop the damned thing started chewing the hand that was going to give it a scolding. Neither wonder Kipling said "The female of the species is more deadly than the male." Here is another example. One day a nice lady gave us a piece of strawberry short cake. We were foolish enough to tell another lady about it, and she prepared a real banquet. Yes, she gave us a scolding. It consisted of essays, bawling away. For dessert she took the last weeks' washing, and threw it on our devoted head. Gee! Whiskers, it's enough to drive a guy to a U.F.A. picnic.

A regular meeting of the U.F.W.A. was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. Van Camp. Weather conditions prevented many of the members from turning out, but what was lacking in numbers was made up of the enthusiasm of those present. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Van Camp served a dainty lunch to the visitors and their escorts.

I say, old top, if one of those badly Centroshots should hit the bulge, what will it be? Yes sir, you got it—a strike.

A young married man desires our opinion on Life Insurance. He's old son, there is nothing better. In days of old the people living on the banks of the Nile used to have sufficient grain to last for seven years. The modern way is safer and more profitable. It's a protection, as those who are furnishing you with credit. It provides for those who are dependent on you, and who are not yet old enough to be a burden. Buy a policy now, you will never be younger. Remember that moderation is the keynote of success, and don't carry any more than you can handle in comfort.

Get far more wear from dainty garments

It isn't because they're so fragile that your crepe garments, fine silks, and laces wear out quickly. It's the injurious things contained in ordinary laundry soaps.

You can get far more wear from the sheers, delicate things you own—by laundering them this way. Use anore-soluble, gently PALMOLIVE PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES. Nothing but purest soap. A great foam of suds that gently dissolves all dirt and soil—but never injures the finest fabric. And if anything it really brightens and renews delicate colors.

Being pure soap—nothing else—they go farther and clean more thoroughly. That makes them actually economical for use in the washing machine, for all laundering, and for all household purposes in fact.

Your dealer has them in handy one-pound packages. Do get some—if only to try—today.

An Eminent Musician Coming

The annual theory exams of the Canadian Academy of Music was held in Strathmore last week, June 9th. The piano examinations are to be held on Friday, June 20th. It was expected that Dr. Frank Weisman would take the western examining trip this year, but the great increase in the number of candidates taking the Canadian Academy exams, this season all over Canada has necessitated a division of the labor, and Dr. W. K. Vincent, F. V. C. M., L. L. C. M. will conduct the examinations in Strathmore on next Friday.

He is an eminent English musician, whose early training was taken at the Royal Academy of Music, London, England, and whose advanced study was completed in other European centres. Some idea of Dr. Vincent's versatility, and breadth of musical outlook may be gained from the fact that some of his teachers were Albert Rindogger for singing, Von Bulow and Krause for piano, Ambert and Siegal for organ, and Frost and McFarren for theory. He has for years conducted choral and orchestral societies in the Orient and is at present organ and choir master of one of Toronto's largest churches, Deer Park Methodist, in addition to his work and classes at the Canadian Academy and Toronto College of Music (Amal).

It is indeed a matter of satisfaction for local music students and their parents to know that an opportunity has been created for them to come in contact with such an eminent musician and to have their music study passed upon and criticized by him.

PROMINENT MEDICAL MEN COMING SECOND TOUR OF TREE PLANTING CAR

Many world famous medical men will be in attendance at the scientific convention to be held under the auspices of the Alberta Medical Association in Edmonton, July 2 to 4. Among them will be Sir John Thompson Walker, of London, England, noted urologist, and Prof. Lyle Cummins, of Cardiff, Wales, specialist on tuberculosis.

The tree planting car of the Canadian Forestry Association is to make another tour of the prairie province this year, according to an announcement by officials of the association. ## LIVE STOCK RECORD

Another evidence of what can be done in agriculture in Northern Alberta is the cattle shipment recently sent down from the farm of J. J. Powers, in the Clear Hills district north of Peace River. This small lot, which was destined for eastern markets, was fed in the open all winter and arrived at the Edmonton Stock Yards in good marketing condition.

Standard News

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Knowlton returned to Standard on Saturday morning from their five-weeks' trip to points in Eastern Canada.

Mr. A. Wany, who has been relieving Grant at the C.R. office for several weeks, left by Saturday afternoon train for Medicine Hat.

The heavy roads, in consequence of showers during the past week, prevented a number from Standard attending the chauntauque at Glenora as regularly as they would have wished.

Crop conditions throughout the district have greatly improved during the week. The best rain of the season fell on Friday night and Saturday morning, when sufficient moisture fell to carry the crop along for two or three weeks.

L. C. Peterson is busy erecting an implement house on the late adjoining his garage, to accommodate the accumulation of machinery required in his increasing business.

The Junior U. F. A. in Session

The Junior U. F. A. held their annual convention at the Hotel Victoria in Alberta from June 1 to 10, and in short everyone present (about 70 delegates) and seniors had a grand and glorious time. In this short report I will give special mention of the business session which was held on Saturday afternoon June 7th, in Convention Hall.

First, Prof. Ottewill, economy known as "daddy" gave an interesting talk on the organization of the University explaining the academic and financial works, and that the University belonged to the people.

President Grant was then introduced to the audience, by Donald Cameron, president of the Junior U. F. A. The premier urged by the young people to do their best to acquire knowledge and then to supply it properly to the service of others. He also said that the farm young of today would, and should be the leaders of tomorrow and that right now was the time to build, and develop intelligent, and unselfish citizens. This was one of the big aims of the U. F. A.

Mrs. R. H. Dunn then brought the good wishes to the Juniors from the U. F. W. A., and was followed by Mr. S. Scholten, who expressed the good wishes of the U. F. A.

Next, Mrs. Fraser, convener of Young Peoples Work gave her report. She traced the history of the Junior U. F. A., and told of the general progress right from the beginning. She said that the Junior U. F. A. was the preparation ground, so that we might be efficient U. F. A. members, and also spoke of the great transformation which came to some districts, because of the U. F. A. organization of the U. F. A.

The president, Donald Cameron then gave his report urging for greater co-operation, and education. He also said that the Juniors are gradually awakening to their great possibilities.

Miss Vera Carson, vice-president then gave her report. She spoke of a number of local which had been organized under her direction, and emphasized that the progress of the Juniors was now coming to the attention of the whole province.

The provincial secretary, Miss A. B. Kidd, then gave her report. She re-includes a carload of fine looking stuff from as far north as Beaver Lodge, named from the Edmonton Stock Yards, which comprised 14 carloads.

A shipment is also leaving shortly for Antwerp.

Slats' Diary

Friday—Well pa had a considerable trouble getting the ford started today whilst we was out a riding. He said to me
They say a tin lining makes lots of noise, but believe me after cranking my self all plumbing out of wind that exact made prittier music than any fiddle I ever heard. Even when we were at the Syn-pathy clectry last summer.

Saturday—well I finally give away my high topped shoes to a Poor boy today. I guess I have got my monies worth out of them shoes all rite even if I do get jowed for being hard on my shoes. Pa and me got to figuring it out today and we bought them three months before Prohibition broke out.

Sunday—well bathing time is about here again and ma spent the afternoon a looking for her bathing suit but couldn't find it. Pa had to have a little fun at her expense and he said Well I just found a dead Moth and I deducted that nubby it had swallowed your bathing suit and nobody possibly choked to death on it. Ma says pa's jokes are getting to be very crude.

Monday—They was a real estate man tuk pa out to look at a new house today and he was a telling pa that he could throw a stone from the paved highway to the house. Well pa tyrod it and he succeeded. It went rite thro the front window. Well now I can't hard luck pa. Tomorrow to go fishing With Jake and Blisters.

Tuesday—Us kids had a grate time fishing today. Lots of good sunfishes and one and etc. I didn't hook no sunfish as we expected wood betch. But anyways I didn't expect it.

Wednesday—I was a asting Jane what was her idea of making fishes keep on continuing to fish outside well of you and also said. Well when you once get fakes to thinking good of you it is a good plan to stay clean away from them.

Thursday—well me and Pug Stevens sailed by again today in real battile. I give him a good kicking.
Almost. But it lert me one thing, and that was Never hit a say when you got him down. Unless you can keep him down.

Carlsland Center-shots

The Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs.
T. H. Kruse on Thursday.

The ball game last Friday night was a game sivilier everyone their money's worth. It looked pretty bad for Langdon until the last inning when they scored three runs. It was getting pretty late. We heard someone say that Langdon worked better after dark. The score by innings was as follows:

Langdon 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 3-5
Carlsland 0 0 1 0 2 1 0 3-6

The Junior ball team got into bad company up at Fairhill last Saturday, but they put up a pretty good game at that. The boys say they will show them how it is done next Saturday.
Here's luck to our future league players.

The school board wishes us to request all pupils wishing to take grade look. Light hail visited the north-west section of the district, but fortunately very little damage is reported.

loads of export beef cattle to Winnipeg cordingly. Be sure to have your flags

CARSELAND NOTES

I wondered in the morning,
And all day long I thought,
But considered in the evening
What a person once had taught.

That little drops of water,
And little grains of sand,
If falling long enough,
Would wear away the land.

For Scottie was a writer,
And glib of tongue as well,
Too little was a fighter;
A sporty goat they tell.

But it all came unexpected,
Just as I had pulled my coat,
For the job I'd long neglected,
Was the one that got his goat.
